~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Join us today for
Divine Mercy Sunday
April 12th at 4:00pm

There will be Adoration, Confession,
Contemporary Music and the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

In her Diary, St. Faustina records a special promise given to her by Jesus. He told her to communicate it to the whole world:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy (699).

To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil) by making a good confession beforehand and being in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy.

Miracles Happen Here

When we read in the Bible about miracles performed by Jesus, often the underlying theme is that the faith of the one who receives the miracle is key. But Jesus isn't restricted to using only faithful recipients. There are times when the "sign" given actually has the effect of strengthening or even producing faith in those who witness it. (Jn 2:11) Such was the case in the following account.

From Connie McIlwain, morning Mass regular:

In the early 1990's my older sister found herself deserted by her husband, raising three teenagers alone without money. Her little second-hand Toyota desperately needed brakes but the repair was beyond her financial capability. A friend of her youngest was taking auto mechanics at the time and offered to do the repairs if she would pay for the materials. This arrangement would amount to a savings close to $600. She eagerly accepted. I happened to be visiting her the day the young man had the car up on blocks and prepared to take it apart. After three hours of trying, he entered the kitchen where the ladies were chatting and said despondently, "I am sorry Ms. Mary, I have tried everything for three hours but the wheel just won't come off. You'll have to call the mechanic." Something (actually SomeONE - the Holy Ghost) prompted me to get up, go down to the driveway, teenage mechanic in tow. At the car, I seem to remember muttering a short prayer, "Jesus please make this work" before tracing the tiniest of crosses on the fender above the offending wheel with my right thumb. Instantly, the wheel plopped off the axle onto the driveway with a thud. I don't know if that boy gained any faith that day as he stood in amazement for a long time before setting to work on the brakes, but I know my faith was strengthened. I realized that, like the water into wine at the Cana wedding feast, sometimes Jesus grants a miracle to avert psychological, financial, or emotional pain and often these kinds of miracles involve non-human factors.

We would love to share your miracle stories.

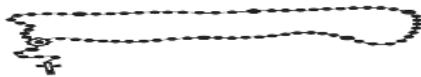

Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com
