~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Go to Confession

“So that’s how priests go to confession!”

Personally I try to go as soon as possible if I’ve done something against one of the commandments. That’s what my dad taught us to do as children. So as I was on my way to a funeral, I pulled up masstimes.org to search for churches with confession along my route. God provides! There was a church that offered the sacrament at just the right time. I walked in, dressed in my clerics, and saw the long line. Just one priest hearing. And now many people staring at me. Another priest!

Somehow, despite any feeling of guilt or shame of my own, I managed to smile. “I’m here to have my sins forgiven! I’ll tell you what - let me skip the line, and I’ll ask the other priest if I can open another line.” Eyes lit up and nodded in ready agreement. I had my sins forgiven, and another line was opened, win-win.

Confession can be difficult. For one, it means humility. Perhaps I’m not always the “good person” I wish to be. There’s the uncomfortability of waiting in line. There’s the actual work of repentance, of saying, “Lord, at this moment, I want to be free! I want to do whatever I can to cut off my sins.” Not that you’re expected to be perfect tomorrow, but you commit to stand back upright today. And what if you get a grumpy priest? Well, it would be a shame to let a broken man get in the way of your relationship with God.

Why not give it a try? What have you to lose? It costs no money. It’s more effective with less effort than counseling (although that is good and highly recommended too). Add a rosary in the mix and it may save your marriage, destroy your addiction, and restore your identity. Especially as we approach the preparatory season of Advent (next Sunday!) I’d ask that you consider going.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Anthony Raymundo

Did you know? The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that “after having attained the age of discretion, each of the faithful is bound by an obligation faithfully to confess serious sins at least once a year” (CCC 1457).

Fun Fact: According to Canon Law (can. 844 §4), Non-Catholics who are baptized CAN also go to sacramental confession, as long as they believe Jesus can forgive their sins through the priest. Even those who aren’t yet baptized can have a prayerful conversation about repentance and make a ‘perfect act of contrition’. God’s mercy is truly amazing. Just let the priest know where you stand.

We will have Advent Confessions on Thursday, December 12th at 7:00 pm at Sacred Heart. Several priests from the area will be here to hear confessions. Jesus waits for us in this beautiful sacrament of mercy and peace.

Spirit of Christmas Giving Tree

Thank you in advance for taking a tag from the tree. Please remember to bring the gifts back by Sunday, December 8th and the gift cards back by Sunday, December 22nd.

We will be joyfully serving our parish and community families as well as Ware Manor, Oxford Neighborhood Services, Lighthouse Youth Center, Divine Sent Food Bank, and Cornerstone Pregnancy Center.

Volunteers are needed to help deliver gifts to the centers we serve. Please text or call Jen Tipton at 610-547-9234

Christmas Cards for the Troops

Sacred Heart Parish will be collecting Christmas Cards for our troops stationed overseas. There will be a collection box in the narthex to put them in.

Please drop off your cards by Sunday, December 8th so we can be sure to get them to the troops by Christmas.

Thank you for supporting our military!

 DID YOU KNOW?? ***

Did you know that our parish is privileged to have its own Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima? It is a Beautiful, blessed statue made in Fatima, Portugal that travels throughout our parish to encourage devotion to Our Lady and her Most Holy Rosary.

A person or family welcomes the statue into their home, situates it in a place of honor and enjoys Our Lady's special presence with them for a period of about a week. The statue then moves on to the next person or family (transportation will be provided or it can be exchanged at church).

Our Heavenly Mother brings special blessings with her wherever she goes!

If you are interested in honoring Our Lady, please contact Karen Orpneck at kmo@zoominternet.net or at 610-932-8106 to schedule your week.
