~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Miracles Happen Here

The familiar passage John 3:16, promises that eternal life is awaiting all the faithful who trust in Him. The Church calls this the Communion of the Saints. Those faithful followers of Jesus who have gone before us are forever joined with Him in Eternal glory. Once in a great while, we are allowed to glimpse the reality of this as eternity “breaks through” and we are given the knowledge that our loved ones who have preceded us are now in His presence in Heaven. The following story is about one such occurrence.

From Bobby Rando, frequent visitor to Sacred Heart from the Diocese of Wilmington:

I went to Israel in October 2013 on a tour with almost all Pentecostal/Protestant believers. After 13 days, we all got to know each other very well with many enjoyable days with laughter, fun, and awe. On the next to last day of the trip, we went to the Temple Mount and made our way to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. As we got to the Stations of the Cross which are marked along the path, many Catholics were honoring in their own special way, some even carrying a cross! Our tour guide then announced that it would be appropriate for me to tell everyone about the Catholic Stations of the Cross. Then it happened. As I started to talk to the group of 40 people at the first station, I looked up and saw/sensed a spiral staircase that was there, but it was invisible to the naked eye. At the top was like a window through which I could sense loving family peering down at me, including my Nonna Antonia, Zia Angelina and Uncle Domenic, possibly my mother's sister who had died at the age of 2 and other "lights". I felt such peace and joy that all I could do was burst into tears in front of all these people. The tour guide took over after that.

It's unknown if any of those well-intentioned adherents of sola scriptura (scripture alone) decided to dig deeper into the ancient faith that day, but I certainly came to a greater appreciation of how the continuity of life is unbroken after death. The love lives on, becomes perfected, and is always with us, just as Our Lord promised.

The Stations of the Cross is one of the many deeply traditional practices that comes down to us from the very first days of Christ's church. The Stations, which are found in all Catholic churches today along the exterior walls are often stylized to match the architecture of the church or created by local Catholic artists. Stations inside our churches came about as a result of the Moslem occupation of Jerusalem (636 AD through 1099 AD) and their prohibition against the veneration of “The Way of the Cross” where it actually occurred. Today, one can follow the Via Dolorosa (Painful Way) once again through the steep narrow streets in Jerusalem.

We would love to share your miracle stories. Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com
