~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

My volunteer receptionists and I have been asked to field some political questions as of late. Why was not more said about Charlie Kirk? Why did last week's bulletin endorse a pro-life vote? Can a Catholic in good conscience vote for a pro-choice candidate? These questions have come in a range of tones and emotions. I'd like to address those here.

As the book The Religion of the Day (University of Mary) notes, the ruling vision today includes belief that we can save ourselves in this world through knowledge and technology. The Catholic position is different: God saves us with our willing cooperation, beginning already but completed in the world to come. Point being, to invest too much time and attention into saving this world by our own strength is an exercise in futility and a substitute for true religion.

This is a part of why I tend to shy away from politics at the pulpit. There is a hill I'm willing to die on – not Capitol Hill, but Calvary. If I've earned any trust or goodwill, I'd like to spend it raising hearts and minds to union with God. I exercise restraint to respect a captive audience and for gentle evangelization; to attract those who have not yet accepted the infallible moral teaching of the Catholic Church. Here in the bulletin you are not a captive audience, so I will grant myself a bit more latitude. Now to tackle the upcoming election.

Can a Catholic vote for a pro-abortion candidate without sin? The short answer is yes, it is technically possible but very difficult (remote material cooperation with sin requires proportionate reason).

We must lay some groundwork.

The fifth commandment: thou shalt not kill (an innocent human life)

Scientists: Life begins at conception (unique DNA)

Theologians: God creates the soul at conception

Bible: John the Baptist leapt in the womb

Put that all together and abortion is taking an innocent human life - an intrinsic evil. If you vote for a pro-abortion candidate you are doing a morally neutral act (voting) which enables an intrinsic evil to occur (abortion). From moral theology, the principle of double effect means you can will a good effect (the candidate's care for the poor, for example) but you must not will the evil effect (abortion). However, the difficulty is that the good effect must be proportionately greater than the bad effect. Abortion is an evil so great that it is difficult to accumulate enough good effects to counter it.

The law about what a pastor may or may not say was recently clarified. A pastor may endorse particular candidates when speaking to their own congregation. A pastor may not use resources for a public campaign to non-congregants, however. I will be voting pro-life as I cannot find proportionate reason not to. Later in the bulletin you'll find the list of which candidates are pro-abortion. I will be bringing a bulletin to the polls to use and I suggest you do the same!

PS: I am not authorizing any materials to be placed on your cars or left for distribution in the Narthex, and I condemn such behavior.

Fr. Anthony Raymundo

Tuesday November 4th

State and local elections for the state of Pennsylvania are fast approaching. On Tuesday, November 4th, you can vote at your local polling location, or if you choose to vote by mail, your ballot must be received by 8pm on Election Day. Paragraph 2240 of the Catholic Catechism tells us that as Catholics, we are morally obligated to pay taxes, exercise the right to vote and to defend one's country.

Traditionally, state and local elections have light turn-outs as they don't get as much media attention as National or Presidential elections. It is noted that some of this year's candidates have 10 year terms. Ten years is a long time to serve in a political position.

We as Catholics should pay particular attention to the election of our local judges. Judges Christine Donahue, Kevin Dougherty and David Wecht are pro-abortion and want to invent a "right to abortion" in Pennsylvania's Constitution. Judges Alice Dubrow and Michael Wojcik are also pro-abortion, and the retention of these five judges could turn Pennsylvania into an abortion sanctuary state. For more information, go to www.pafamily.org.

We know that abortion is not the only issue at stake in elections, but the Church teaches that the right to life is God-given, fundamental, inherent and first among man's rights.

Vote your conscience and beliefs. Most importantly, take time out of your busy schedule to vote on November 4th. As the saying goes, "Elections have consequences!"
