~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Miracles Happen Here

Sometimes a miracle comes in the manifestation of an ability that we have never personally perfected. This must've been what the disciples experienced when Jesus sent them out two by two to cure the sick and expel demons ahead of Him (Luke 10:17-21). It is those times when we are astounded by a talent in ourselves we never had before. The following is a story about the expression of an unpracticed ability which came to the fore just when someone needed to see its fruits.

From Dan McCarthy, daily Mass participant:

One summer day, while walking along the beach, I came to a mound of sand which caught my attention. For some reason unknown to me, I bent down and began moving the sand in a way that felt deliberate. Soon a "sculpture" began to take shape. As I continued, I realized I had been manipulating the sand in such a way that it now looked like the upper part of the crucifix, the head of Jesus as he died on the cross. Now you have to know that I have no artistic ability at all, and this sculpture was not something I could've produced if I had tried. I realized that God had used me to create this beautiful fleeting reminder of His unfathomable love. As I stood up and looked, amazed at the profound creation, a gentleman happened by. He asked if I had done that and I replied in the affirmative even though I knew it wasn't just me who did it. The man fell to the ground weeping at the sand image of his Lord and Savior. As he was a stranger, I never found out the story of his anguish and fervent prayer, but it was clearly a case of God using an unworthy artist to show His love to one who needed it, exactly when he needed it.

We will have times in our lives when we do something we didn't know we had in us. When we swerve at the last second to avoid a car crash and regain the road like a professional racer or when we find out years after the fact that a kind word that "just popped out" saved someone's life. These are the moments when God uses us; giving us abilities we don't normally have to work His purpose. His purpose is always Love.

We would love to share your miracle stories. Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com
