~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As a “late to the table” lover of history, I realize that I must choose a topic. So, I can join the tots who can rattle off the names of prehistoric lizards like Tyrannosaurus Rex and Triceratops. Or I can join the ranks of those who rate Ken Burns treatment of the Civil War as a masterpiece. Or I can take an interest in the record of NASA. But with my calling as a priest factored in, I know I will always revert to the story of God’s involvement in human history as the best historical topic of all. Today’s Gospel passage reminds me of that wonderful, recorded walk along the shore of Jesus Christ, God’s Son.

St. Matthew chronicles the event in somewhat stark terms in today’s Gospel passage. We yearn for some details, like facial expressions or voiced responses. But Matthew’s interest is how quick and unreserved the two sets of brothers give Our Lord in response. Little do they know what is ahead.

Surely the Holy Spirit has a message here for all of us who hear or read about this incident. What response would you or I have given Jesus that day? What response do we give Him this day? How would we write our personal history?

I came across a respected scholar who calls what Matthew is describing this way: “Covenant grace builds upon, perfects and elevates our human nature.” The bond we have with God sets the stage. Sadly, it is a bond largely forgotten by our secular culture. So, events get recorded with not even a nod to God’s part. Take God out of the human story and it is a dull one all around.

So, we can perk up with Isaiah’s timeless announcement of a new day. We can join St. Paul’s unity campaign. Why? Because despite the downward pull the world around us seems to exert, goodness and light always break through. You will notice it in every good person you know. Especially if they are authentic Christians. What a good feeling it is to know that Our Lord Jesus Christ notices us; He loves us and wants our personal history to be bound up with His. That is what happens every time we go to Mass. Never let any obstacle get in your way and remember that He calls us by name to join Him. He guarantees that: “The task ahead of us is never as great as the Power behind us.”

God love you and give you His peace

Missionary Hubs will be at the heart of the Catholic Church of Philadelphia's outreach and invitation to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Our vision is to establish, over the next 10 years, 50 Missionary Hubs across our five counties, with two hubs focused specifically on reaching young adults both in person and through digital channels. These hubs will create a supportive network and community of missionary life and connection, across urban neighborhoods, disadvantaged communities, rural towns, and everywhere in between. Five pilot Missionary Hubs are currently launching, thanks to early supporters. Each Missionary Hub will have a collaborative staff focused on growing the Church, building up parish communities to invite people to Mass, community events, and service to the poor. Missionary Hubs will renew our parishes and institutions, not replace them. Share your feedback on this important initiative by completing the planning study survey at:

Planning for Your Child's Baptism

Congratulations on the upcoming baptism of your child!

To arrange for this blessed occasion, please pick up a Baptism Registration form that can be found in the church narthex. After the form is completed, please personally give it to Fr. Anthony Raymundo right after any of the weekend or weekday Masses at which he presides. This meeting will give the parents and Father Anthony an opportunity to get to know one another as well as to go over preparation details for this joyous day.

God bless your entire family in this first step in your child's spiritual life!! Your parish family celebrates with you!!!

 DID YOU KNOW?? ***

Did you know that our parish is privileged to have its own Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima? It is a beautiful, blessed statue made in Fatima, Portugal that travels throughout our parish to encourage devotion to Our Lady and her Most Holy Rosary.

A person or family welcomes the statue into their home, situates it in a place of honor and enjoys Our Lady's special presence with them for a period of about a week. The statue then moves on to the next person or family (transportation will be provided or it can be exchanged at church).

Our Heavenly Mother brings special blessings with her wherever she goes!

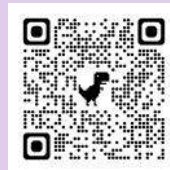

If you are interested in honoring Our Lady, please contact Karen Orpneck at kmo@zoominternet.net or at 610-932-8106 to schedule your week.

Little Margaret Marys

Our next meeting is Sunday, February 15th. Meet in the church at 9:30am to pray a decade of the Rosary together. We will sit in the front pew and bring up the gifts for Mass at 10:00 am.

All young girls who have received First Communion are welcome to join our group, dedicated to cultivating hearts of mercy and devotion through prayer and service. Contact Laura Haselbarth laurahaze15@gmail.com to join.

Sacred Heart Parish Prayer For Vocations

God our Father, in Your plan for our salvation
You provide shepherds for Your people. Fill Your Church in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and especially at Sacred Heart Parish, with the Spirit of courage and love. Raise up from our families future priests, worthy ministers for Your altars, generous and ardent servants of the Gospel. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
