~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

All Saints

Introit: Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honor of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

Gospel: Matthew 11:28

Communion Antiphon: Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration for New Families and Baptism Information

To register your family or have your baby baptized, please print the registration form that can be found on the website www.sacredheart.us or pick one up in the church narthex. After the form is completed, please personally give it to Fr. Anthony right after any of the weekend or weekday Masses at which he presides. This meeting will give you and Father Anthony an opportunity to get to know one another.

Weddings

Please inform Sacred Heart of your plans at least six months in advance of the date you have chosen for your wedding. If you are not a registered parishioner, please visit the website www.sacredheart.us and see the electronic registration under the 'I'm new to Sacred Heart' tab to register. Please approach Father Anthony following any Mass he officiates and he will set up a time to formally meet with you and your fiancé. An in-person meeting with our pastor is necessary in order to open your wedding file and schedule a date.

Religious Education

PREP classes are offered to all baptized students from Kindergarten to 8th Grade on Sundays from 8:30-9:45 AM in the Parish Center. A separate program is offered for students at the high school level. To Register, contact Alexis Witiak, Coordinator of Religious Education, at 610-932-5040 or awitiak@sacredheart.us.

MIRACLES HAPPEN HERE

Catholicism is unique in that we have always believed in the intercession of those who have gone before us, especially those recognized officially as saints. We ask them to pray for us as we face challenges in this realm. Church history is filled with miracles attributed to Our Blessed Mother (Fatima, Lourdes, Akita, Kibeho, Guadalupe, Knock and many more) and the early church fathers (Veneration of the Chains of the Apostle Peter). However, miracles are not limited to the intercession of holy ones who walked and talked with our incarnated Lord. The following is a two-for-one miracle story related by Susan Pieslak, a devout parishioner at St Mary of the Mills Parish in Laurel, MD.

When I was a preteen, my older sister (age 15) developed a life threatening case of Hodgkin's Disease and became very sick. Through conventional treatment and intense family prayers asking for the intercession of Blessed Solanus Casey, she made a complete recovery. At that time, the cause for his canonization still required a miracle to move forward. Though my sister's cure was not considered, Blessed Casey did receive the approval for a miracle and was canonized on November 18, 2017.

Our family remained forever grateful for the miracle we were given so when I met my nominally Catholic roommate in college, I shared the story with her and we became close. Our freshman year was filled with hopes, aspirations, social life and fun. During the summer between our freshman and sophomore years in college, my new friend and I kept in touch until she informed me she would not be able to return to campus in September. She had been given the scary diagnosis of Hodgkin's Disease and would have to remain close to home for treatment. She confided her fears and, remembering our success with prayer, had asked me to pray for her. As treatment proceeded and she became weaker and weaker, my friend began having vivid dreams. It was always of the same man whom she had not recognized. Her grandmother advised her to contact a priest about the recurring night visitations fearing there might be a demonic component, though the patient had not expressed fear of the man. The priest began showing her pictures of various saints, and when she saw the man in her dreams, she stopped him saying, "That's him – that's the man." It was none other than Padre Pio, a saint who, like Blessed Solanus Casey, can still be remembered as a contemporary of some people alive today.

The communion of saints is truly a growing body of believers both on this side of the veil and in heaven. This story indicates that we do not even have to know the saint who is interceding for us to be affected by their powerful prayers. The chemo and radiation associated with treatment of Hodgkin's Lymphoma, traditionally leaves a woman unable to conceive. Both women in this account are cancer-free mothers.

We would love to share your miracle stories. Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com

Tuesday, November 3rd

State and local elections for the state of Pennsylvania are this Tuesday, November 3rd. Paragraph 2240 of the Catholic Catechism tells us that as Catholics, we are morally obligated to pay taxes, exercise the right to vote, and defend one's country. Traditionally, state and local elections have light turn-outs as they do not get as much media attention as National or Presidential elections. It is important that we read and learn about these candidates and their positions. Vote your conscience and beliefs. Most importantly, we must schedule time out of our busy schedule to vote this Tuesday, November 3rd.

Elections have consequences!
