~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Everything we do here centers on the worship of God and the evangelization and sanctification of humanity. Yet from that mission comes a stunning variety of ways we do that! Today I'd like to highlight one of those. We recently installed a "sacrarium" in the sacristy, where we prepare for Mass.

Fr. Shenosky saw this as an important need, and a way to show reverence towards the Eucharist. The cloths used to clean the chalice hold particles of the Eucharist - and no matter how small the particles, we believe that the Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus. Yet as soon as the "accidents" of bread or wine disappear (when digested or dissolved in water) so does the presence of the Lord. So the best practice for cleaning the altar linens is to let them soak in water until any particles dissolve, and pour the water into the ground instead of the sewer. This is exactly what a sacrarium does!

A sacrarium is a "special sink used for the reverent disposal of sacred substances. This sink has a cover, a basin, and a special pipe and drain that empty directly into the earth, rather than into the sewer system." (USCCB, Built to Living Stones, 236).

A big thank you to Pat and Ed Marx, former parishioners of Sacred Heart, who generously gifted the purchase to our church. Thank you to Facilities Committee member Dennis Brown and his son-in-law, Tom Roberts who handled installation. And thank you to all of you who show special care and reverence to the Lord, present in the Eucharist.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Anthony

On a separate note:

Last Sunday many of you had found fliers stuck to your car, naming specific candidates whom Catholics should not vote. Those were not authorized by me (and never will be), and whoever did so has disrespected my authority as your parochial administrator. If you notice someone in the act, please stop them and give their name to me.

The policy of the Archdiocese is not to endorse specific candidates, although we can and do speak on politically relevant moral issues on occasion. Truly, a Catholic may never have or support abortion. To do so would be a grave sin against the fifth commandment. Nor may Catholics support the death penalty, human trafficking and exploitation, racism, IVF, or anything degrading the nuclear family or sexual morality. If one votes for a candidate because one likes an immoral policy, that would be participation in sin. One would have to vote for a candidate hating their support for immoral actions in order not to participate in that sin - a bit more of a nuanced position than was on the flier.

Adult Choir Needs You

Over the past decade or two, church choirs have seen a decrease of participation among its church members, and unfortunately, Sacred Heart adult choir has been a victim of this same trend. We would like to see that trend turned around. We would like to give reasons to join the Sacred Heart Adult Choir.

Joining the choir gives you an opportunity to meet new people and gives you a better sense of community, connection, and creativity.

You always have a seat at Mass - even at those crowded Christmas and Easter Masses!

The act of singing is uplifting! Singing is a way to take a break from the negativity in the world and bring positivity and light into your life.

Please consider doing your mind, body, and spirit some good, and become a member of our Sacred Heart Adult Choir. We accept all singers aged 14 and up. We practice on Wednesday evenings from 6:45 PM to 8:00 PM in the church. If you are interested, please contact me, Amy Murphy, at 610-457-6172 or amurphy@sacredheart.us.

We will begin practices on Wednesday, October 16th.
