~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

Responsorial Psalm: I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration for New Families and Baptism Information

To register your family or have your baby baptized, please print the registration form that can be found on the website www.sacredheart.us or pick one up in the church narthex. After the form is completed, please personally give it to Fr. Anthony right after any of the weekend or weekday Masses at which he presides. This meeting will give you and Father Anthony an opportunity to get to know one another.

Weddings

Please inform Sacred Heart of your plans at least six months in advance of the date you have chosen for your wedding. If you are not a registered parishioner, please visit the website www.sacredheart.us and see the electronic registration under the 'I'm new to Sacred Heart' tab to register. Please approach Father Anthony following any Mass he officiates and he will set up a time to formally meet with you and your fiancé. An in-person meeting with our pastor is necessary in order to open your wedding file and schedule a date.

Religious Education

PREP classes are offered to all baptized students from Kindergarten to 8th Grade on Sundays from 8:30-9:45 AM in the Parish Center. A separate program is offered for students at the high school level. To Register, contact Alexis Witiak, Coordinator of Religious Education, at 610-932-5040 or awitiak@sacredheart.us.

MIRACLES HAPPEN HERE

Every now and then, Our Father reminds us-in a way that makes us smile-that we are always on His mind, and He tosses little, unexpected gifts our way just to remind us, lest we forget.

The following is one such incident that recently happened to a Sacred Heart daily Mass attendee while at church in the Diocese of Trenton NJ. From Connie McIlwain:

My sister had arranged for a Fourth of July extravaganza at her beach house on the middle Jersey shore. Since my husband Jim and our mom had died 20 years to the day apart on July 3rd, she got a Mass for their death anniversary at her Church the day before the party. When we got to Mass, it was announced that a last minute substitute priest would be filling in for the regular priest as Father had not shown up. We were told not to expect a sermon. When the young Indian priest came onto the altar he announced the saint whose feast day it was, but misspoke and said Saint James – immediately followed by Thomas – whose feast day it actually was. So it seemed like we were celebrating “St. James Thomas.” Jim’s given name? James Thomas! I am praying that was a God nod to Jim having been admitted to heaven.

If we are tempted to think we are not important to the Lord and the holy ones, watch for little signs like these. They are more frequent than we realize.

We would love to share your miracle stories.

Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com

10 Ways to Support Her When She's Unexpectedly Expecting

Read the full version at respectlife.org/support-her.

As a mom who had my first baby in college, I know that an unexpected pregnancy can sometimes bring fear, shame, and doubt. Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. I encourage you to support her in her new journey of being a mother. It's okay if you don't know the perfect words to say. Let her know you are there for her, and ask how you can support her. Assist her in lining up practical help. She may not feel she "deserves" to show happiness; reassure her it's okay (and good) to be happy. Your support might be the only support she receives. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?
