~ Prayer to Saint Michael ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

Responsorial Psalm: The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

Communion Antiphon: The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration for New Families and Baptism Information

To register your family or have your baby baptized, please print the registration form that can be found on the website www.sacredheart.us or pick one up in the church narthex. After the form is completed, please personally give it to Fr. Anthony right after any of the weekend or weekday Masses at which he presides. This meeting will give you and Father Anthony an opportunity to get to know one another.

Weddings

Please inform Sacred Heart of your plans at least six months in advance of the date you have chosen for your wedding. If you are not a registered parishioner, please visit the website www.sacredheart.us and see the electronic registration under the 'I'm new to Sacred Heart' tab to register. Please approach Father Anthony following any Mass he officiates and he will set up a time to formally meet with you and your fiancé. An in-person meeting with our pastor is necessary in order to open your wedding file and schedule a date.

Religious Education

PREP classes are offered to all baptized students from Kindergarten to 8th Grade on Sundays from 8:30-9:45 AM in the Parish Center. A separate program is offered for students at the high school level. To Register, contact Alexis Witiak, Coordinator of Religious Education, at 610-932-5040 or awitiak@sacredheart.us.

Seven Sisters Apostolate
Calling Women to Call on Jesus — for Father Anthony!

Sacred Heart is launching our own Seven Sisters Apostolate — a national movement of women committing one holy hour each week in prayer for a priest. We're recruiting 9 women (7 to pray, plus 2 alternates) to intercede for Father Anthony Raymundo for one year.

M T W T F S S

"In strengthening the priest, you strengthen the whole church... Strengthen the priest, and you strengthen everything in the church."
— FR. GERALD FITZGERALD, S.P.

Will you offer one holy hour a week for Father Anthony?
Contact Amy Grabowski at 302-507-6636 or outreach@sacredheart.us to join.

MIRACLES HAPPEN HERE

Before Jesus ascended into heaven to take His place with the Father, He commissioned His apostles to go out and spread the Good News. With Pentecost, the Holy Spirit entered into them, and they were given the ability to drive out demons along with the many other gifts bestowed on them with the coming of the Paraclete.(Acts 2). The following is a short example of how the Spirit acts through us when we are in the state of grace.

From a senior altar boy in St. Mary of the Mills Parish in Laurel, MD (Archdiocese of Washington,DC)

In St. Mary of the Mills, a phenomenon is happening. Reverent Masses are back and the altar is attracting more and more teenage and preteen boys to serve. Surrounded by chanted prayers, ancient Latin songs, incense and candles, the boys are getting a sense of how truly holy is the place where the bread and wine are transformed into the Savior's Body and Blood. Boys come to Masses they have not been assigned, on the outside chance that someone may not show up and they will get to serve. But each assigned boy almost always shows up as every young man is as dedicated as the next. On Mothers' Day this year, 18 boys came to the altar hoping for a chance to swing the thurible or carry the cross. Among these are two older boys whom the others think will likely end up in the priesthood or a monastery.

Jeremiah and Abube (whose family has recently arrived in the US from the African nation of Nigeria where Catholics are still heavily persecuted) have become interested in learning about prayers and how to serve in the Latin Mass. As they have no traditional Latin Mass at their church, they paid a visit to the National Shrine of St Alphonsus Liguori in a very bad section of Baltimore – outside their home archdiocese. They went to a very early Mass and, after observing, were leaving the beautiful church which is unfortunately locked during Mass due to danger in the streets. The morning sun was rising on the beleaguered city. A clearly deranged man approached Abube and, glaring with angry eyes, stated emphatically, "YOU are going to HELL!" Without missing a beat, the calm, brave, Godly teenager simply said, "God bless you." The scary man got a terrified look on his face and ran quickly away among the dilapidated buildings and construction in that dangerous city. This is an example of proof that Our Heavenly Father is far more powerful than any demonic entity we might encounter.

Pray for our young men who serve on the altars of our churches today and who may discern a vocation to the priesthood in their futures.

We would love to share your miracle stories.
Please send them to conniemcilwain@hotmail.com

HOUSEKEEPING NOTE

Dear Parishioners,

A nearby parish switched how their hymnals lie in their holders, putting them on their sides. It made for easier movement without clothing catching as people went up for communion. Would you help me do that here? Whenever you see a hymnal out of place, please put them back in the slot horizontally, with the small antiphon booklet standing upright behind them. I and our maintenance staff thank you!

World Mission Month One in Christ, United in Mission

Each October, which is World Mission Month, the Church invites us to reflect upon our Missionary vocation. This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, invites us to rediscover the unity we share in Christ through baptism and how our baptismal Missionary identity overflows into the mission of the Church to bring all creatures into communion with God.

Pope Leo XIV has stressed how important World Mission Sunday is for the Church. Pray this week for those Missionaries who bring Christ's love to far-off places, often at great personal cost and risk. And let us ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle a zeal in our own hearts, that we may also be Missionaries, wherever we are.

How to Build a Culture of Life

Read the full version at respectlife.org/culture-of-life

Watching the news and reading the headlines, we may feel helpless seeing the heartbreaking lack of respect for human life. How do we respond? Changing the culture is a process of conversion that begins in our own hearts. When we encounter Christ, experience His love, and deepen our relationship with Him, we become more aware of our own immeasurable worth and that of others. His unchanging love is the source of our God-given dignity, which, therefore, cannot be taken away. When someone is facing great trials, we need to walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however He directs. We simply need to follow where He leads.

This is a summary of a USCCB Respect Life Program article by the same name and is reprinted with permission.

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life — especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.
